Instructional Materials Selection and Adoption

Textbooks and instructional materials, both print and non-print, are selected based upon their quality and educational value, and must contribute to a general sense of the worth of all individuals regardless of sex, race, religion, nationality, ethnic origin, disability, or any other differences which may exist.

Textbooks and instructional materials shall be adopted consistent with provisions of The School Code, and shall be approved by the Curriculum Committee and the Superintendent.

The Superintendent shall approve the selection of all textbooks and instructional materials.
